CALL FOR ABSTRACTS
14th AMC Security & Privacy Conference ◆ June 11-12, 2018

We are seeking abstracts for the 14th Academic Medical Center Security & Privacy Conference, scheduled for June 11-12, 2018 at the Friday Center in Chapel Hill, NC. Topics of interest include:

- Cybersecurity risks and mitigation strategies
- Emerging issues in legal and regulatory compliance (e.g. GDPR)
- Security and privacy risk management frameworks and best practices
- Biomedical device and Internet of Things (IoT) security
- Bring Your Own Device (BYOD) and other mobile device challenges
- Using cloud computing, virtualization, and container technologies securely
- Enabling advanced medical research while balancing security and privacy
- Incident response best practices
- Identity and access management challenges
- Managing business associates and subcontractors
- Assessing and measuring the maturity of security and privacy controls
- Establishing effective governance processes
- Building support for privacy and security by engaging key stakeholders

NOTE: Other topics are welcome, and case studies are of particular interest.

Session Types	Length	Number of Presenters	Session Format
Roundtable Discussion	75 minutes	2-3	Moderated roundtable format with minimal presentation slides; robust dialog between speakers and audience
Panel Presentation	75 minutes	2-3	Panel to provide 60 minutes of presentation (20-30 minutes per speaker), followed by at least 15 minutes of audience Q&A

Abstract Rules

- All abstracts should include 2-3 speakers. At least one of these speakers must be from an Academic Medical Center or other healthcare delivery organization.
- Abstracts must include the names, bios and contact information for all speakers.
- Vendors are invited to submit abstracts, but presentations should be free of commercial bias and should not contain marketing materials.
- You will be notified by February 28, 2018 if your abstract was selected.
- Note: If your abstract is selected and it becomes necessary to substitute a speaker, conference organizers must be notified in advance of event and the substitution is subject to approval.

For additional information, contact Laura Ksycewski at 919-558-9258 ext. 302, laura@nchica.org.

Click here to submit an abstract. The deadline is January 31, 2018.